

Clay Lacy Scholarship Program

The Clay Lacy Scholarship Program is funded by Mr. Clay Lacy and administered by the Flight Path Museum & Learning Center to encourage students to pursue careers in aviation. Clay Lacy is an aviation legend – one of the nation's most highly accomplished and respected aviators. His professional piloting abilities include: United Airlines Captain, military aviator, experimental test pilot, air race champion, aviation record setter, aerial cinematographer, entrepreneur, founder and president of Clay Lacy Aviation, and the unchallenged holder of the highest number of flight hours of any active pilot.

Deadline: May 26, 2020

Scholarship Award:

A $5,000 scholarship will be presented to the most qualified applicant. The award may be used for payment of tuition, books, fees, pilot ground and flight training and other educational expenses.

The award of $5,000 will be sent directly to the recipient's choice of educational institution (i.e., community college, four year college, university, technical school, etc.). If the awardee withdraws from the academic/training program with a tuition refund, the Flight Path Museum & Learning Center will receive the refund.

This scholarship may be renewable. Scholarship recipients from previous years are eligible to reapply.

Requirements:

All applicants must:

1. Be enrolled, or plan to be enrolled, for full-time study in an accredited school (community college, four year college, university, technical, etc.) with a formal aviation curriculum leading to a certificate, license, or degree in aviation, and plan on attending school no later than the next academic school year.
2. Be a United States citizen.
3. Be a permanent legal resident of Southern California.
4. Have demonstrated or expressed a genuine interest in a career in aviation. For example, membership in aviation explorer scouts, member of an aviation club, attendance at an aviation or space camp, extracurricular aviation activities, a student membership in a professional aviation organization, etc.

Selection Criteria:

Selection will be based on the applicant's Scholarship Entry Form and Essay; interest in becoming a professional pilot and/or pursuing a career in aviation; extra-curricular activities; recommendations of high school/college/university/technical school faculty; and academic record. Financial need will also be considered. The top five (5) candidates may be called for an interview.

The successful candidate will be notified by letter and/or telephone.

Application Process:

All applicants must complete and mail the following materials to the Flight Path Museum & Learning Center, Scholarship Committee.

1. Clay Lacy Scholarship Entry Form with a 500 word essay, as described on the entry form.
2. Applicant's high school, college, or technical school transcript of grades.
3. Letters of recommendation from two faculty members of the applicant's high school, college, university, or technical school.

Application and supporting documents must be postmarked by Tuesday, May 26, 2020, and received no later than Monday, June 1, 2020.
